

Seminar

“From Biosamples to Personalized Medicine”

31 May 2016, Brussels

PROGRAMME
13.00	Introductory remarks Declan Kirrane, ISC
13.05	Formal welcome; The role of BBMRI-ERIC in personal medicine Prof Jan-Eric Litton and Michaela Th Mayrhofer, BBMRI-ERIC
13.25	BBMRI-ERIC Stakeholder forum for patient and personalized medicine Alastair Kent, Genetic Alliance UK
13.45	The patient perspective in the drive for personalized medicine Francesco Florindi, European Cancer Patient Coalition
13.55	Data analytics for personalized medicine: judging patient data against public knowledge Dietrich Rebholz, Insight Centre for Data Analytics
14.10	The European Cloud Initiative and its potential in health research Amalia-Irina Vlad, European Commission, DG CONNECT
14.20	Patient Registries Michel Pletschette, European Commission, DG SANTE
14.35	Coffee break
14.50	Health policy for personalized medicine Angela Brand, University of Maastricht
15.05	Key national initiatives: Germany Carsten Claussen, Fraunhofer

15.15	Key national initiatives: Spain Ivo Gut, The Centre for Genomic Regulation (CRG)
15.25	A systems perspective on personalised medicine Dirk Fey, Systems Biology Ireland
15.35	Industry Perspective Gwendolyn Goedbloed, Janssen Pharmaceutica BVBA
15.45	Q&A, discussion, and concluding remarks Prof Jan-Eric Litton, BBMRI-ERIC
16.00	End of seminar